History of Palazzi brothers

In Fano Italy, on the Adriatic Coast two young men dreamed of something more. Brothers Paul and Marco Palazzi immigrated to Canada in 1954. In 1959 and with hard work and ambition the two men started their Co. from Paul's home on Giles Blvd, in Windsor, Ontario. Palazzi Bros. Carpet and Tile Ltd. is a household name here in Windsor and Essex County. Marco and Paul never forgot their origin.

In the early years Paul and Marco along with their wives Betty and Elena handled all aspects of the flooring business; from ordering, designing and installing flooring. They all worked long hours to keep up with demand and to raise young families. Working in a community as close-knit as Windsor-Essex County it didn't take long for people to hear about the wonderful work the Palazzi brothers were doing. In 1963, younger brother Max joined his brothers and business grew to the point where their first building At 3449 Walker Road was erected.

The Co. focused mainly on ceramic tile and resilient flooring. In 1965, Palazzi Bros. introduced Palazzi Bros. Carpet; with Max as president of the Carpet business.

Palazzi Bros. Carpet and Tile Ltd. Was now involved in major construction projects in Windsor and South Western Ontario.

With business growing and the need to meet market demand changes the Palazzi brothers undertook a major construction project. In 1976, they relocated to its current retail location at 3636 Walker Road.

With the new facility at hand the Co. was able to meet consumer demand by providing exclusive tile from around the world. The next phase of this dynamic business was to establish an importing network of ceramic tile and natural stone, such as; marble and granite.

In 1985, the business continued to grow. Expansion to the building now completes and houses the marble shop. The Palazzi team along with specialized technicians manufacture granite and stone counter-tops on site. Customers were thrilled to be able to see and touch slabs of granite in hundreds of colours.

The showroom also had expanded to suit the growing business in oriental rugs and luxurious carpet Palazzi Orientals at 3612 Walker rd is owned and operated by Max Palazzi and his son, Paolo Palazzi.

Over the years, the Palazzi Bros. continued to explore new ventures and expansions. Palazzi Tile Imports was born in 1985. The co. Is located in Sterling Heights, Michigan. Paul's son-in-law Tony Aversa and Marco's son Robert Palazzi own and operate the Michigan location. Palazzi Bros. have currently opened a designer showroom in downtown Sarnia, Ontario. Paul's daughter Paula Mele manages the Sarnia location. Palazzi Bros. Carpet and Tile continues to lead the way in the exciting world of home decorating and construction. Presently, the Co. employees 15 people Paul and Marco are proud of the 'Palazzi' team!

From humble beginnings to the present, customer satisfaction, workmanship and selection of the finest materials in the flooring industry has been the reason for Palazzi's success.

Old world values and commitment to quality workmanship is the cornerstone of the business philosophy embraced by Paul and Marco and instilled in every member of the Palazzi team.
